MEC Redesigns Campaign Finance Search

The Missouri Ethics Commission released today a new, retooled campaign finance committee search. This offers an easier, streamlined way to find candidates, campaign finance committees, committee treasurers, and the related reports. New to the Committee Information & Reports search is a quick, easy-to-read snapshot of committee information and financial summaries.

“The Commission continues looking at ways to provide easy, relevant information to the public. Our Committee Information & Reports search improvements does this and we look forward to doing more in the future”, says Julie Allen, Executive Director.
